AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT AND SECTION 504 OF THE REHABILITATION ACT

FACULTY & STAFF ACCOMMODATION GUIDELINES

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, as amended, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504) prohibit employers from discriminating against individuals based upon a disability or perceived disability and set forth that reasonable accommodations will be provided to qualified persons with disabilities. The ADA and Section 504, as well as University Policy prohibit retaliation against an employee for requesting an accommodation or for participating in an ADA/Section 504 complaint process.

The University of Utah has designated the following individual as the ADA/Section 504 Coordinator to coordinate the University's efforts to comply with the ADA and Section 504:

Director, Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action
201 South Presidents Circle, Room 135
Salt Lake City, UT 84112
801-581-8365 or 801-585-5746 (FAX)
Email: OEO@UTAH.EDU

Definition of Disability: The ADA states that an individual is disabled if s/he:

- a. has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the individual's major life activities;
- b. has a history or record of such a disability;
- c. is regarded as having a physical or mental impairment that is not transitory (lasting six months or less) and minor.

Definition of Qualified Individual: The term "qualified individual with a disability" means:

- a. an individual with a disability;
- b. who can perform the "essential functions" of the employment position;
- c. with or without reasonable accommodation.

Employers are required to provide reasonable accommodation to the known limitation (s) of a person with a disability, as defined by the ADA and Section 504.

Self-Disclosure: In order to establish the existence of a disability and request reasonable accommodation under the ADA/Section 504, an employee must complete and submit a Request for Disability Accommodation Form to the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmation Action (OEO/AA) at 135 Park Building, or by fax at 801-585-5746.

A department chair or supervisor should not ask an employee about their disability or discuss reasonable accommodation with an employee. Instead, the employee should be referred to the ADA/Section 504 Coordinator to make a written request for accommodation. If the department chair or supervisor has questions about this process, please call OEO/AA at 801-581-8365.

Employee's seeking a reasonable accommodation under the ADA/Section 504 must follow the Faculty & Staff Accommodation Procedures.

For additional information about disability accommodations or issues relating to prohibited discrimination or retaliation, please contact an OEO/AA consultant at 801-581-8365 or visit our website at: www.oeo.utah.edu.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT AND SECTION 504 OF THE REHABILITATION ACT
FACULTY & STAFF ACCOMMODATION PROCEDURES

1. Documentation of Disability: When an employee submits a Request of Disability Accommodation Form, the employee must provide, at their own expense, documentation of their disability in the form of a written evaluation by an appropriate health care provider. The employee will be required to sign a Medical/Health Care Information Release Form, so that the health care provider can provide the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action (OEO/AA) with the appropriate documentation. Upon request, the department chair or supervisor will provide OEO/AA with a written job description of the essential functions of the job, which may include the mental and physical demands of the employee's job.

Upon receipt of the completed form and medical release, the OEO/AA will provide the employee with a written request to the employee's health care provider requesting the appropriate medical documentation of the employee's disability, as well as the signed release form. The OEO/AA will not inquire about the employee's medical condition(s), beyond what is necessary to perform the ADA analysis. It is the employee's responsibility to ensure that the medical documentation/information requested is returned to OEO/AA by the date specified in OEO/AA's written request. NOTE: The evaluation process will be greatly expedited if the employee can provide a doctor's note with the written request for accommodation detailing what the doctor's recommendations are, and the medical basis of those recommendations.

2. Temporary Accommodation: After consultation with the employee and their department chair or supervisor, OEO/AA may provide the employee with a temporary accommodation pending receipt and evaluation of the documentation of the disability. OEO/AA will notify the employee, in writing, of the temporary accommodation to be provided.
3. Evaluation of Documentation: Upon receipt of documentation from an employee's health care provider, the University will determine if the employee has a disability as defined by the ADA/Section 504 and if the employee can perform the essential functions of their position, with or without reasonable accommodation. The OEO/AA endeavors to complete accommodation evaluations as expeditiously as possible.
4. Second Opinions: OEO/AA and/or the University's ADA Coordinator may contact the employee's health care provider for clarification of the written evaluation. OEO/AA may also, at the University's expense, seek a second opinion. The employee must make themselves available for such an evaluation.
5. Final Determination and Notification to Staff or to Faculty Members: The University has the authority to make the final determination regarding what accommodation, if any, is appropriate. When a final determination is made, OEO/AA will send written notification to the employee of its determination, whether an accommodation has been granted, and if so, will specify what accommodation has been granted. OEO/AA will also notify the employee's department chair or supervisor if an accommodation is to be provided to the employee.
6. Right to Appeal: If an accommodation request is denied, the employee may submit a request for review to the Chief Human Resources Officer. This appeal must be made within five (5) days of the notice of denial and must be in writing.
7. Grievances: Employees who feel that they have been subjected to illegal discrimination or retaliation for participating in an ADA/Section 504 process, may file an internal discrimination complaint, pursuant to University Policy 1-012, with the ADA/Section 504 Coordinator, and/or with the appropriate external agency.
